The Jewish Calendar

“Our Parent, our Sovereign, hear our voice!”

— High Holy Day Prayer book

The High Holy Days

The “Ten Days of Repentance” from Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year, through Yom Kippur, The Day of Atonement, call for “an accounting of the soul.” On Rosh Hashanah we express our hope for a sweet new year with apples and honey, reaffirm God’s sovereignty and our need to make a new beginning with the sounding of the shofar, a ram’s horn, and symbolically cast away our sins. On Yom Kippur we fast to enhance our concentration on spiritual matters; we confess our sins and seek reconciliation with those we have wronged during the past year.

“The Jewish calendar is the catechism of the Jews.”

— Rabbi Samson Raphael Hirsch

The calendar shapes Jewish life and gives expression to the Jewish worldview. The deepest values and aspirations of the faith are revealed by the content of and the relationships among our holidays. The calendar is a solar-adjusted lunar system. The months average twenty-nine and a half days, resulting in a 354-day year. To ensure that festivals fall in their proper season, a thirteenth month is added in seven of every nineteen years.

“The holy days are the unbroken master code of Judaism.”

— Rabbi Irving Greenberg

Festivals and Holy Days

A religion's sacred occasions reflect its history and beliefs. Holidays from our past commemorate ancient events, while newer holidays mark seminal developments of later times. The chief elements of the Jewish People's sacred seasons are: the cycles of nature and the natural world's beneficence; historic triumphs and tragedies, in all their power and promise; and the messianic hope to perfect our character and our world, in partnership with God.

“The Pilgrim Festivals: Nature and History

The Three “Pilgrim Festivals” are Pesach, Passover, in early spring; Shavuot, the Feast of Weeks, in late spring; and Sukkot, the Feast of Booths, in the autumn. In ancient times, Israelite males made pilgrimages to Jerusalem to celebrate the festivals. Pesach celebrates the liberation of our people from Egyptian bondage and nature's release from the bonds of winter. Shavuot commemorates the giving of Torah and the successful completion of the early harvest. Sukkot rejoices in God's providence during our forty-year journey from Egypt to the Promised Land, as well as the fullness of the autumn harvest.

“From grief and mourning to festive joy.”

— Esther 9:22

History-Based Holidays: The Past as Prologue

The eternal lessons of monumental events in Jewish history come alive each year in rituals of remembering and reenactment. Purim, the Feast of Lots, celebrates the story from the biblical book of Esther, in which a plot to exterminate the Jews is foiled by a woman of courage. Hanukkah, the Festival of Lights, commemorates the rededication of the Jerusalem Temple and the regaining of religious freedom after the Maccabean victory over the vastly more powerful Assyrian Greeks. Tisha B’Av, the ninth day of the month of Av, is a day of fasting on which some of the most painful and catastrophic events of Jewish history are remembered.

“In memory lies the secret of redemption.”
(Baal Shem Tov)

Modern Observances
The 20th century produced some of the most horrible events of Jewish history and some of the most miraculous. Their meaning is captured through new holidays. Yom Hashoah v’Ha-Gevurah, Holocaust and Heroism Commemoration Day, memorializes the six million Jews killed by the Nazis and their collaborators and celebrates the courage of those who resisted the evildoers. Yom Ha-atzmaut, Israel Independence Day, celebrates the 1948 creation of the State of Israel as the culmination of 2000 years of hope and prayer. Yom Yerushalayim, Jerusalem Reunification Day, recalls the day in 1967 when Jewish soldiers re-captured the Old City of Jerusalem and reunited the city in which Jews have lived since the days of King David.

“HDS – Where you want to be!”
At the center of a wonderfully diverse and welcoming Jewish community, the Jewish Federation of Greater Ann Arbor celebrates and strengthens Jewish life at home, in Israel and around the world. Federation sponsors a wide variety of social, educational, cultural and scholarship programs throughout the year, including seminars and lectures, trips to Israel and community celebrations. Federation’s fall “Main Event” brings together hundreds of community members to share an evening of community education and fellowship, and is a highlight of its annual campaign in support of Ann Arbor’s vibrant Jewish communal life. In the spring, Celebrate Israel is a festive celebration of Israel Independence Day.

The 2012 annual campaign raised over $1.3 million from 1,100 donor families. In addition to supporting local Jewish agencies and overseas partners (see allocations sidebar) the Federation supports projects in Israel and around the world that reflect the unique progressive character of Ann Arbor. The Federation is an active participant in the Michigan/Central Galilee Partnership 2000 project, anchored by the Jewish Federation of Greater Detroit. Since 2007, Ann Arbor has had a special relationship with Moshav Nahalal, involving numerous programs and visits aimed at strengthening the Jewish identity and connectedness of both communities.

The strength of the Federation comes from its many volunteers and active participants in the annual campaign, community programs, affinity groups and committees. The Federation welcomes inquiries from new and existing community members who are interested in exploring ways to be involved or simply to learn more about Jewish life in Washtenaw County.

The Jewish Community Foundation is operated by the Jewish Federation of Greater Ann Arbor and exists to ensure that the high quality of Jewish life will continue in Washtenaw County for community members’ children and grandchildren. The Foundation serves as custodian for many of the endowment funds of area Jewish agencies and congregations assisting them to fulfill their future needs and dreams. Beth Israel Congregation, Chabad House, Hebrew Day School, the Jewish Community Center of Greater Ann Arbor, Jewish Family Services and Temple Beth Emeth all partner with the Jewish Community Foundation to secure the financial future of the Jewish community.

The Foundation’s board of directors is empowered to receive gifts and bequests of cash, stocks and property from individuals, corporations and other entities. The Foundation can help donors fulfill their philanthropic goals while addressing their estate planning and tax needs, through the creation of donor-advised funds, permanent restricted and unrestricted endowment funds, charitable trusts and gift annuities. The Jewish Community Foundation enables donors to assure that the institutions and programs in the community that they value will be available in perpetuity while leaving their own personal legacy in the community.

Contact the director of the Foundation or the executive directors of any of the partner organizations to consult confidentially about planned giving opportunities.

The New American Community Club assists foreign-born older adults in accessing social and medical services, offers support, and promotes the process of acculturation and integration into the larger community through a wide range of direct services and programs.

The JFS CareVan Program enables older or disabled adults and other residents to maintain their independence by providing rides within the Ann Arbor/Ypsilanti area to doctors’ appointments, errands, and community events. The vehicle includes a van with a wheelchair lift and seating for ten. Riders must be JFS clients and make reservations one week in advance.
JFS is able to provide services to those in need because of the help they receive from the volunteers in the community. JFS provides unique and fulfilling volunteer opportunities tailored to meet diverse preferences, skills and schedules. There are many ways to help: be a friendly visitor for an older adult or become a Patient Partners Concierge™ and accompany seniors to their medical appointments, be an English as a Second Language tutor or conversational partner, provide administrative assistance in the office, join a committee, or help out at a once-a-year event.

THE HERB AMSTER CENTER

The Jewish Community Center (JCC) strives to build a strong and cohesive sense of Jewish community and Jewish identity. The JCC initiates community-wide programs, brings together a diverse Jewish population, serves as a meeting place for Jewish organizations, and provides high-quality programming for Jewish people of all ages from the youngest child to the oldest adult.

During the year, the JCC holds many popular community wide events, including Sukkarnival/ Apples & Honey (a family event celebrating the fall Jewish holidays), the Jewish Book Festival, Jewish Film Festival, a bi-yearly auction, Family Fun Days, a family Passover celebration and the Matzah Factory with Chabad.

The JCC is also home to the JCC Early Childhood Center, Jewish Federation of Greater Ann Arbor, Hebrew Day School, Jewish Cultural Society, Reconstructionist Havurah, the Washtenaw Jewish News, and a branch office of Jewish Family Services.
JCC EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTER

The JCC Early Childhood Center (ECC) celebrates Judaism in a loving, supportive environment that encourages children’s creativity and spontaneity. The ECC strives to create a growing experience in which children will thrive.

The ECC is accredited by the National Association for the Education for Young Children (NAEYC). Programs are provided for children ages two months to five years. The school offers morning pre-school and full and part-time childcare. In addition, parent/infant and toddler classes, Tot Shabbat, and pre-school enrichment classes are offered on a weekly basis. Songs, dance, holiday celebrations, and weekly Shabbat observance enrich the curriculum along with Shabbat family dinners, literacy events, and parenting programs.

Children are provided an opportunity for active learning that allows them to learn by being involved in their environment and by engaging in activities that encourage personal growth. They are given choices in the way they manipulate a variety of open-ended materials and with adult instructors who support their choices and listen to them. A loving, supportive atmosphere is provided in which a child’s creativity and spontaneity are encouraged. A favorable staff-child ratio enhances individual and developmental activities designed to meet the child at his or her level of readiness. The program uses the High Scope approach to Early Childhood Education.

dance to the annual Sukkot Retreat to monthly sessions in Jewish meditation, the AARH offers members numerous opportunities to regularly or occasionally plug in to a warm, hospitable community.

Many singles, mixed-religion couples and non-traditional families are long-term, active members of the AARH. All find a welcoming and comfortable community.

RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE

The AARH observes Shabbat on the fourth Friday evening of each month at 6:15 p.m. as well as the second Saturday morning at 10 a.m. Fourth Friday services feature a highly-musical Kabbalat Shabbat, followed by an informal potluck dinner. Second Saturdays are also highly musical and feature an extended discussion of the Torah parsha. All Shabbat services take place at the Jewish Community Center of Greater Ann Arbor.

In addition, the AARH offers a unique, 10 part series of services, known as the Learners' Service, usually on the first Saturday of each month (September - June; check the website for dates), at 10 a.m. Each month focuses on a different aspect of the Saturday morning service, exploring the hows and whys of everything from the postures we take to the individuals that contributed to the siddur, to the history behind the Torah service. This is a lively, engaging morning filled with lots of questions and spirited discussion. Learners' Services take place at the Jewish Community Center of Greater Ann Arbor.

High Holiday services for Rosh Hashanah, Kol Nidre and Yom Kippur day are musical, spiritual and highly participatory, led by long-time Havurah member and rabbinic student Aura Ahuvia. In keeping with the Havurah's belief that prayer should always be free and open to all, non-members are welcome to join the Havurah for High Holiday services; no tickets are required. Children's services and child care are also offered. High Holiday Services take place at the Unitarian Universalist Congregation, 4001 Ann Arbor-Saline Road.

Holidays and festivals are cause for great celebration: Simchat Torah, Chanukah and, especially, the annual Purim Party. There's also a community-

BEIT SEFER (RELIGIOUS SCHOOL)

The Beit Sefer is an innovative, warm, and meaningful educational experience for K-7th graders that welcomes the children of AAH members and non-members alike.

Combining experience and exuberance, the staff works to help each student find his or her own path to a Jewish identity that includes a grounding in both Jewish religion and civilization. Class topics include: Jewish Living Skills, Prayer and Spirituality, Peoplehood, Israel and Hebrew. Tikun Olam (repairing the world), is an important part of the curriculum. The Beit Sefer uses a hands-on approach that includes music sessions, crafts, storytelling, plays and tzedakah (service learning) projects, leading up to bar or bat mitzvah.

The Beit Sefer meets on Sunday mornings during the school year at the Jewish Community Center. Active involvement of parents is encouraged.

New this year is a post-bar/bat mitzvah program, Hineini, for students in, and especially beyond, their bar/bat mitzvah year. It meets on Sunday afternoons, and is designed to continue students’ education by encouraging asking the most challenging questions, wrestling with answers, and developing communal leadership skills.

Visit the AARH website, www.aarecon.org, to find out more about Reconstructionism and the Havurah. Unless otherwise noted, non-members and interfaith couples are welcome at all services and activities on the website calendar.

BethIsraelCongregation

Robert Dobrusin, senior rabbi

Kim Blumenthal, associate rabbi

Elliot Sorkin, executive director

Established in 1916, Beth Israel has been a vital presence in the spiritual, social and educational lives of its members for 95 years. The congregation, a member of the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism, is a welcoming and warm community, which fosters a connectedness to our rich tradition, embraces innovative and creative programming, and provides an important support system for its members in times of celebration and in times of need. Rabbi Robert Dobrusin, who is a graduate of the Jewish Theological Seminary, has served the congregation with distinction for over 20 years. Rabbi Kim Blumenthal, also a JTS graduate, has served the congregation since 2008.

Beth Israel offers religious services that are traditional in form, egalitarian in nature, and participatory in practice. The services feature a wonderful sense of fellowship and community. Congregants take leading roles in the conducting of all services. An egalitarian daily minyan, led by congregants is held Sunday–Thursday at 9:30 p.m. (5 p.m. on winter Sundays.) Friday evening Shabbat services take place at 6 p.m. and on Saturday mornings at 9:30 a.m.

Recognizing the critical importance of Jewish learning for all ages, adult education classes are held throughout the year. Social and recreational activities which allow people to get to know each other better and programs emphasizing tikkun olam are an important part of congregational life. A deep relationship to Israel is fostered through teen scholarships, congregation trips, dialogue programs and the planning of a moving community-wide Yom Hazikaron (Israeli Fallen Soldiers and Victims of Terrorism Remembrance Day) Ceremony.

Beth Israel hosts the homeless during Christmas through the Rotating OverShelter program, provides volunteers to the Interfaith Hospitality Network at Alpha House for homeless families, runs a blood drive in March, and maintains a garden which supplies fresh vegetables to hunger programs. The Beth Israel Mitzvah Connection organizes volunteers for phone calls and visits to the frail elderly, as well as meals, rides, and errands to congregants who need them.

Non-members are always invited to participate in all of Beth Israel activities.

New residents of Washtenaw County since last Yom Kippur may request free tickets to the High Holiday services. Individuals and families aged 35 and under may join the congregation in their first year for a dues of $300 (plus United Synagogue dues of $34.75).

THE BETH ISRAEL GARDEN

Each summer Beth Israel members maintain a community garden at County Farm Park where they grow flowers and vegetables donated to Food Gatherers through the “Faith and Food” program to help others in the community.

OUTDOOR SHABBAT CELEBRATIONS

During the summer and early fall months, Beth Israel offers a variety of outdoor Shabbat programs such as Barbeque and Barchu (hamburgers and hotdogs preceding a Kabbalat Shabbat service in the courtyard) Shira Hadasha Shlomo Carlebach Friday Night Services, Shabbat in the Park potluck dinner and Shabbat service at County Farm Park, and a Pet Shabbat where dozens of dogs come with their families to an outdoor Shabbat celebration.

THE BETH ISRAEL FUN FAIR

On September 7, the Beth Israel Fair will offer great activities for all ages including a bounce house, face painting, grilled hot dogs and veggie dogs, snow cones, bocce ball, kick ball, lawn relay races and more.

QUIZ NIGHT

A highlight of the programming year is the annual multi-media Beth Israel Quiz Night (January 19.) Adults of all ages compete as teams to answer trivia questions, audio and video clues, and other puzzles in a fun filled, social evening.

SHABBAT, HOLIDAY AND OTHER SPECIAL PROGRAMS AND MEALS

Beth Israel hosts a number of Shabbat and holiday meals as a means of getting to know other members of the synagogue community and enhance one’s celebration of Shabbat and holidays.

These events include “Pizza in the Hut” on Sukkot, a Simchat Torah Dinner preceding the Torah Processions, and an “International Shul of Pancakes Breakfast” offered between the Shaharit Service and the Torah processions on Simchat Torah. For “Sweatshirt Shabbat” everyone is encouraged to wear a sweatshirt to a winter Shabbat morning service, followed by a cholent kiddush. T Shirt Shabbat in June is followed by a summery kiddush. Each year in December the “Beth Israel Chinese Dinner at House of Israel Kaifeng” is held in the social hall.
SHABBAT MORNING PROGRAMS FOR KIDS

Beth Israel offers Shabbat morning programs and services for children of all ages. Tot Shabbat meets on the 2nd and 4th Saturday of each month and offers a Shabbat celebration for preschoolers. Tot Shabbat includes interactive stories and songs, a Torah parade, and a visit from one of the rabbis. On the second Saturday of each month there are also two additional services for children in kindergarten through 2nd grade (Mini-Minyan) and for children in 3rd through 5th grade (Kehillat Shabbat). These participatory services both offer kids a chance to learn and lead Shabbat morning songs and prayers and include special activities each month. Mini Minyan includes a short and song-filled service along with parent-led games and learning activities, while Kehillat Shabbat includes a participatory service led by the kids as well as discussion and games.

HIGH HOLIDAY PROGRAMS FOR CHILDREN AND TEENS

High Holiday celebrations begin with a High Holiday Family Celebration. Pre-school and early elementary school-age children learn about and celebrate the High Holidays in a family-friendly manner. On the mornings of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur two hour programs for different age groups are held. On the second morning of Rosh Hashanah, a Rosh Hashanah Family Program is held—an informal, participatory service celebrating Rosh Hashanah, the birthday of the world.

PURIM CELEBRATION

The entire congregation gets into the act by dressing up in costumes (adults as well as children) and participating in a themed Purim Megilla Reading. Past events include The Muppets Take Beth Israel, Purim World, A Harry Potter Purim, and The Pirates of Purim.

INTERFAITH PROGRAMS

Beth Israel is an active member of the interfaith community. Participation in community interfaith events is encouraged and often interfaith educational gatherings are hosted at the synagogue. It has supported the Interfaith Round Table of Washtenaw County since its founding in 1995. The Interfaith Thanksgiving program is scheduled to be at Beth Israel this year.

PRESCHOOL PROGRAM

Children ages 3 and 4 and a parent are encouraged to join in the fun activities of the Sunday eight session Gan Katan program. Children and parents enjoy stories and activities together. Registration for the program is $150 for the year. Gan Katan is open to the entire community regardless of synagogue membership.

MIDDLE SCHOOL PROGRAM

Grades 6 and 7 meet on Sunday mornings and Wednesday afternoons, and have other programming on selected Shabbat mornings throughout the year. Grade 8 meets on Sunday mornings.

The middle school curriculum includes core courses which focus on Jewish lifecycle, ethics, traditional texts, Hebrew language, tefillah, and history. Semester-long electives taught by the teaching or rabbinic staff are academic, but supple-
Teachers engage students in quality discussions and activities as they explore what it means to live as a Jew today. Coming together as a community each week for tefillot and occasional special activities and celebrations are important parts of the middle school experience. Sixth graders attend an exciting Shabbaton and a series of Shabbat morning sessions. The Bar/Bat Mitzvah Family Series engages students as well as their parents in meaningful learning which facilitates the preparation of students for bar and bat mitzvah individual tutoring.

BI”S works cooperatively with Temple Beth Emeth to offer conversational Hebrew at an immersion level in the middle school. These classes are designed for students who have attended Hebrew Day School in the past, as well as students who have an extensive Hebrew background from other learning experiences. Students whose families are not Beth Israel members are welcome to attend these classes.

Eighth grade students study from a curriculum called The Jewish Lens, and use photography skills to explore their Jewish identity and reflect on their education and experiences. The Kadima Youth Group and Rosh Hodesh: It’s a Girl Thing offer middle school students additional opportunities for enrichment and fun.

HIGH SCHOOL PROGRAMS

Many students are excited to continue to participate in the school and the synagogue throughout their high school careers. The Madrichim Program has two tracks: students in the Educational Assistants Track work with elementary students, and students in the Service Track spend most Sunday mornings volunteering in the community. Students from the two tracks get together for regular study sessions with the rabbis. They may also get involved in other synagogue and community activities, such as: taking Hebrew classes through Keshet Ann Arbor, and participating in Beth Israel’s Alternative Spring Break Trip. High school students are also encouraged to attend a summer teen program to Israel and may apply for a Ladin Israel Teen Trip Scholarship to help with the expenses.

The annual Teen Dinner, which kicks off the year, is Wednesday, August 29, from 6-7:30 pm.
FRIDAY NIGHT LIGHTS AND FAMILY PROGRAMS

The Friday Night Lights program provides families with opportunities to enjoy the community experience of a Kabbalat Shabbat service at 6 p.m. and a dairy Shabbat dinner at 7 p.m. The cost for dinner is $7 per person, with no charge for children under 4. RSVP’s and payment are required on the Monday before each dinner. This year’s Friday Night Lights programs will be held: October 26 (which will include the K-1 Torah Consecration Ceremony), November 16, January 25 (which will feature a Tu B’shvat program), March 15, and April 19.

Additional Family Programs offer easy opportunities to celebrate holidays together as a community. Pizza in the Hut will be offered on Wednesday, October 3, from 6–7 p.m., and will include a pizza dinner in Beth Israel’s sukkah. The Family Hanukkah Party will be on December 12, from 6–8 p.m., and will feature entertainment, lighting the candles for the fifth night of Hanukkah, and a latke dinner. A family Shavuot Program is planned for May.

ADULT EDUCATION AND TRAVEL

Beth Israel offers a variety of programs to interest learners of all ages. Beth Israel and Temple Beth Emeth jointly offer a community-wide adult Hebrew program at both facilities, with classes in both conversational and biblical Hebrew taught at several different levels. Many other classes and lectures are offered throughout the year, including weekly Wednesday Lunch and Learn sessions, Shabbat Limmud text study classes on the weekly Torah portion and other topics, special holiday study sessions, a Musar Group, a Tikun Lel Shavuot Study program, and educational programs facilitated by Rabbi Dobrusin and Rabbi Blumenthal. The Alfred and Alice Rosenberg Adult Scholar in Residence Fund brings in noted scholars from around the world every other year.

The weekend of May 3–5 will be dedicated to Yiddish literature and Yiddish culture, with academic lectures, a Friday night meal recreating a literary feast from a classic Yiddish novel, a Klezmer event, a Yiddish language class, a classic Yiddish movie, and more.

This coming spring, the congregation is planning a trip to Eastern Europe led by Zvi Gitelman, professor of Jewish studies at the University of Michigan.
Chabad-Lubavitch is a Chassidic movement within Judaism that focuses on the individual's relationship to God and fosters a deep sense of devotion and responsibility toward one's fellow men and women. It is characterized by its emphasis on education and its commitment to lend help wherever it is needed.

The name Chabad is a Hebrew acronym for the three intellectual faculties of: Chachmah (wisdom), Binah (comprehension) and Da'at (knowledge). The Chabad philosophy encourages individuals to understand and recognize the importance and unique mission of each creature, and to refine and govern their every act and feeling through wisdom, comprehension and knowledge.

Chabad House and its Congregation Chabad serve as a "home away from home" for Jewish students, as well as a synagogue and gathering place for families in the Washtenaw County area. Under the guidance of Rabbi Aharon and Esther Goldstein, Congregation Chabad reaches out to all Jews regardless of age, affiliation or level of observance. Located on the University of Michigan campus, Congregation Chabad is dedicated to increasing the understanding and knowledge of Judaism and to actively serving and improving the community.

Jewish education is a high priority at Congregation Chabad, where a wide variety of classes are available on a nearly daily basis. Courses include: Insights into the Torah Portion, Jewish Mysticism (Tanya), Hebrew Language, History and Approaches to Jewish Prayer, Talmud study group, Jewish Law and general topics in Judaism. Everyone is welcome regardless of one's previous background, affiliation and level of knowledge. Classes are free of charge and open to the public. Private classes are also available.

Services are conducted year-round in conformance with traditional Jewish law and practice. Hebrew prayer books are available with English or Russian translations. Shabbat evening services begin 15 minutes before sundown Fridays during the school year and at 7 p.m. during the summer. Shabbat morning services begin at 9:45 a.m. Shabbat afternoon and evening services begin at 40 minutes before sundown year-round. Daily services are held in conjunction with the Hillel Orthodox Minyan, starting at 7:30 a.m. during the week and at 9 a.m. on Sunday, Sunday, Thursday and Friday morning services take place at Chabad House; Monday through Wednesday services are held at Hillel.

Chabad plays an active role in the local Jewish community. Holiday highlights include shofar making at the JCC's Apples and Honey event, Chanukah adult and children's programs, distribution of shalach manot (gift baskets) for Purim and a Passover matzah bakery.

Chabad provides a place where life-cycle events can be commemorated and celebrated. Jewish services offered throughout the year include rabbinical advice; information and help on koshering home kitchens; provision of religious articles at cost; renting furnished rooms for students and visitors; providing Shabbat and holiday hospitality; meals; counseling; lectures and classes. Judaic and bar/bat mitzvah tutoring for children and adults is offered.

Chabad House facilities are available to all Jews in the community for the pursuit of Jewish knowledge and for contact with other Jews. Its hospitality and home-like atmosphere are appreciated by students and by visitors to the area. A Rosh Chodesh group for women only is provided and a mikvah is located on the premises. (See Women's Organizations.) Congregation Chabad also offers a wide array of other services and programs, including adult education. (See Jewish Education.) Chabad House is also a center for Jewish students at the University of Michigan. (See Campus Organizations.) For children, Chabad offers Torah Enrichment Program and a winter and summer day camp, and Camp Gan Israel. (See Youth Activities.)
The Jewish Cultural Society (JCS) is a secular humanistic organization, promoting Jewish ethics, values, history, and culture. It provides a community for individuals and families whose Jewish identification is primarily with culture and family. Founded in 1965, the JCS stresses the cultural aspects of Jewish traditions, Jewish history as a source of ethics and strength, and the values of humanism and social justice found in both modern and historical Judaism.

The community offers engaging Sunday school and B’nai Mitzvah programs (pre-K through high school), enriching adult educational and social programs, Jewish holiday celebrations, life cycle events, and social action opportunities. The JCS also runs several community-wide events, including Tu B’Shevat Celebration at Matthaei Botanical Gardens, a family Chanukah celebration, and a 2nd Night Passover Seder.

The JCS takes pride in the fact that its membership is diverse. All individuals and families—young and elderly, traditional and nontraditional, Jewish and intercultural—who wish to express their Jewishness from a secular humanistic perspective, are welcome. The JCS celebrates all Jewish holidays (including monthly Shabbat/Havdalah, High Holidays, Chanukah, and Pesach) and life-cycle celebrations through a secular humanistic lens. Jewish tradition is interpreted by focusing on the relationships between people and community efforts to improve the world.

The JCS is based at the Jewish Community Center of Greater Ann Arbor and is affiliated with the Congress of Secular Jewish Organizations, the Michigan Coalition of Secular and Humanistic Jews, and the International Federation of Secular Humanistic Jews.

HOLIDAY CELEBRATIONS

Secular humanistic Rosh Hashanah, Kol Nidre, and Yom Kippur observances, primarily in English, are offered every fall at the Jewish Community Center and are open to the public. The messages of the High Holiday observances are reflection, responsibility, and forgiveness. The observances are a rededication to communal and individual actions that improve the community and the world. Songs are sung in Hebrew, Yiddish, and English and are led by the Jewish Cultural Society choir. JCS observes Tashlich along the banks of the Huron River followed by a community picnic. The JCS community also comes together for a “Break-the-Fast” potluck after Yom Kippur. All observances are free to members and open to the public for a small charge.

Other holiday celebrations are coordinated by Sunday school parents, and include a Sukkot Harvest Celebration, a Chanukah party, and a Purim carnival. A wonderful annual JCS event is the Tu B’Shevat Celebration of Trees at Matthaei Botanical Gardens in the midst of Michigan’s winter, which emphasizes the theme of personal responsibility for the environment. Incorporated in the Tu B’Shevat celebration is a walking seder with fruits and seeds of the Middle East; a scavenger hunt through the Botanical gardens; crafts; music and story-telling; workshops on sustainability, environmental protection, and recycling by local conservation and environmental groups staff stalls with literature and goods.

The Jewish Cultural Society holds a popular community-wide vegetarian potluck Second Night Seder each Passover, using a contemporary haggadah that was developed by members. The seder includes songs and poetry, and offers a spotlight for JCS students to participate in the readings. The seder emphasizes the continuing need to work for freedom throughout the world.

SHABBAT OBSERVANCES

The recognition of Shabbat as a time to step away from one’s daily life and focus on family is an important part of Secular Humanistic Jewish practice. The JCS community meets for Shabbat on the first Friday of each month, and these Shabbat celebrations are open to the whole community. Shabbat is celebrated through secular Jewish readings; singing; candle lighting, challah, and wine rituals; and a Yahrtzeit observance to remember loved ones. Following the Shabbat observance, the community shares a catered dinner from a local Ann Arbor restaurant. After dinner, educational or social programs are offered such as discussing a topic of interest; playing Jewish Jeopardy for Jewish Literacy month, or participating in a community service activity. The First Friday Shabbat is celebrated at the JCC and participants of all ages are welcome.

Tot Shabbat is run concurrently with the First Friday Shabbat Observance at the JCC. Tot Shabbat is a wonderful way to welcome in the weekend with other families of early elementary age and younger children. Following Tot Shabbat, the youngsters join their parents for dinner before making holiday-themed crafts, reading stories, and singing songs with the Tzofim who help run the Tot Shabbat program.
A bi-monthly celebration of Havdalah distinguishes between the quietness and introspection of Shabbat and the activity of the rest of the week. Celebrated at members' homes, the community begins Havdalah with a modern, secular humanistic observance. Following the Havdalah observance, JCS families welcome the new week with a potluck dinner. Children are welcome and participate in the celebration of Havdalah.

LIFE CYCLE OBSERVANCES

Life cycle observances, a central part of the JCS community life, include baby namings, bar and bat mitzvah celebrations, weddings, funerals, memorials and unveilings. Julie Gales, the JCS's madrikha, develops these ceremonies by collaborating with families celebrating or observing life cycle events resulting in a highly personalized and meaningful experience. Gales also presides over the events. The JCS's Memorial Garden is at Arborcrest Cemetery in northeast Ann Arbor.

Second grade students have a special Shabbat ceremony dedicated to affirming their Jewish names. This annual community-wide life cycle event provides the 2nd grade class with the opportunity to learn about the people for whom they are named and, in the case of some students, to choose a Hebrew name for themselves.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

JCS maintains an active schedule of educational activities for our members and the broader community from pre-K through adult.

ADULT ACTIVITIES

The community offers Sunday morning adult education programs monthly throughout the school year. Sunday Schmoozes provide an opportunity for all members of the Ann Arbor Jewish community to meet local scholars and community leaders for an informal discussion of Jewish topics and politics. Recent topics have emphasized Secular Humanistic Judaism; approaches to Middle East peace, environmental sustainability, improving family life; social action/social justice issues; Jewish cooking; the roots of Chanukah, and historic, political, or current events.

An adult B’nai Mitzvah class is also offered. Participants, in collaboration with the leader, plan the curriculum content and pace.
The adult mitzvah ceremony culminates the approximately two-year program.

In addition to the social action activities and adult education, the JCS holds regular social activities for adult members like Pourin’ for Purim (an annual wine and cheese event). The JCS’s monthly Rosh Hodesh gatherings celebrate the new Jewish month through a short celebration, discussions, and socializing amongst the community’s women. Some of the Rosh Hodesh activities include the annual Apple Cake Bake for the high holidays, sharing books for Jewish Book Month, and Rejuvenating Our Spirits at Chanukah.

The Jewish Cultural Society’s Third Friday Chavurah for the community’s older members takes the form of a monthly potluck held in rotation at the homes of its members. Meeting regularly since the 1980s, the group has spawned close friendships and lively conversations.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

The JCS Sunday School, B’nai Mitzvah Program, and Tzofim (teen leadership) Program, which focus on our youth and their families, are described below.

JEWISH CULTURAL SCHOOL

The Jewish Cultural School (Pre-K through 7th grade) is the Sunday school program of the JCS. JCS’s goal is to expose their students to the vast scope of Jewish life over 4000 years on six continents and to engender in them an appreciation for Jewish history, culture and ethics. Learning is participatory and active. Students dance, sing, create art, cook, and hear and tell stories. The school runs from September to May.

Jewish holidays are discussed with emphasis on their relevance today. The children also study Jewish life in biblical times and the Middle Ages; Jewish culture in Europe, the Middle East and America; anti-Semitism and the Holocaust; and Secular Humanistic Jewish philosophers. Field trips (such as the 6th grade annual trip to the Holocaust Museum in Farmington Hills) and simulations (such as the bi-annual Ellis Island reenactment) are integrated into the curriculum at every level. Although everything is taught in English, students are introduced to basic key words in Hebrew and Yiddish. The curriculum continually evolves with the help of student, parent, and teacher input. In this way, the school supports our students in the development of a positive Jewish identity.

Parent involvement in the Jewish Cultural School is welcome and encouraged. Parents actively participate in their children's education by teaching, helping in their child's classroom, or helping in the planning and running of holiday celebrations.

B'NAI MITZVAH PROGRAM

The Jewish Cultural School B'nai Mitzvah Program offers a truly unique and meaningful way to transition children into Jewish communal life. This program begins in sixth grade and is a two-year process that includes independent research on Jewish topics of interest chosen by the students. Participants distill the information into short oral presentations given at the First Friday Shabbat observance or other gatherings of the families of the B'nai Mitzvah class. The topics cover everything from Masada to shtetl life in Russia to Marc Chagall to Black/Jewish relations in the Civil Rights Movement. The students also research their own families' stories, and work on a Jewish Identity Project that helps them to solidify their own ideas about what it means to be Jewish. In keeping with the Secular Humanistic Jewish emphasis on social justice, there is a 30-hour community service commitment to a project chosen by the student. Students volunteer for Meals on Wheels, Lurie Terrace, Peace Neighborhood Center, and many other local organizations.

This effort culminates in a bar or bat mitzvah celebration, usually during the seventh grade. Each ceremony is a unique collaboration written by the students and their parents with help from the Julie Gales, the JCS's madrikha, who preside over the events. The mitzvah celebrations are held at the Jewish Community Center or another location of the bar/bat mitzvah family's choice.

After bar or bat mitzvah, students are encouraged to continue in the eighth grade, joint the Tzofim Program, and become Sunday school tzofim (classroom aides), providing a vehicle for them to maintain active in the JCS.

OLDER YOUTH ACTIVITIES

Jewish learning continues after bar or bat mitzvah with the Tzofim (teen leadership) Program for students grades 8-12. The program includes leadership development, student led social action projects, and group activities. The program also provides an opportunity for students to work as aides in the classroom and at community-wide events. The post bar/bat mitzvah age youth also attend the annual Congress of Secular Jewish Organizations’ conference that takes place each Memorial Day weekend in different locations across North America. Tzofim plan social action events together, organize social action projects open to the broader, and help plan and staff holiday programs.

SOCIAL ACTION

Social action is at the heart of Secular Humanistic Judaism. A firm belief that Jews are responsible and accountable for one’s own history, actions, and future motivates JCS members to view tikun olam, (repairing the world,) as a very high priority.

The Social Action Committee (SAC) of JCS is active in tikun olam by keeping members up to date about current issues of interest. JCS members are encouraged to speak freely about all social issues, no matter how controversial. The JCS community believes that respectful, open dialogue with each other is the best way to solve problems.

JCS students participate in tzedakah at Sunday school. Each class identifies a social action project of interest and raise tzedakah money to donate. Community service is also a major part of the bar/bat mitzvah program. Anyone interested in social action should contact Bob Davidow and Susan Grubb, the JCS Social Action Committee chairs, to learn more about current social action projects at the community email address, jcs@jccfed.org.

PARDES HANNAH

Pardes Hannah, Ann Arbor’s Jewish Renewal Community, provides an intimate setting to enter deeply into prayer through chanting, kabbalistic meditation, movement, traditional davening, and openhearted engagement with Torah. Pardes Hannah offers Shabbat morning and Kabbalat Shabbat services, Rosh Hashanah, Kol Nidre and Yom Kippur services and a variety of spiritual and educational study sessions and celebrations throughout the cycle of the Jewish year.

Pardes Hannah meets the 2nd Shabbat of the month for Shabbat morning services held at Beth Israel Annex, 2010 Washtenaw Avenue, and then during the month alternate (usually on the 4th Shabbat) with a Shabbat morning learners minyan (held at Beth Israel Annex), the third meal—“Seudat shlishtit”—singing table melodies and learnings from Jewish mystical texts, or Kabbalat Shabbat services (held at people’s homes). Check the website for dates, location and more information.

Services are led by Rabbi Elliot Ginsburg, founder and spiritual leader of Pardes Hannah, and other skilled leaders in the group. In the tradition of Jewish Renewal communities (see www.aleph.org), Pardes Hannah is committed to strengthening the three pillars of Jewish life—prayer, study, and action. The goals of Jewish Renewal are to empower individuals to respond to the call of Torah and to provide the resources that assist individuals and communities in the search for a meaningful, Jewish spiritual practice. Jewish Renewal draws on the well-springs of Jewish tradition, on sacred texts, mystical practices, historical currents, artistic expression, and individuals’ own inner truths.

TEMPLE BETH EMETH

Temple Beth Emeth is a Reform Congregation, affiliated with the Union for Reform Judaism, committed to enhancing religious life in Ann Arbor through religious, spiritual, cultural, educational, social action, and social programming. The congregation strives to create a sense of family, a ‘caring community’, for all its members—a place in which its members can celebrate their joys or share difficult moments surrounded by people who care.

Last year, TBE focused on Torah. TBE embarks this year on a path to strengthen individual connections to Torah, to the congregation, and to the wider community. These connections will be made through study, social action, and prayer across all age groups. TBE will host the first-ever Union for Reform Judaism Religious Action Center weekend in Ann Arbor. Additionally, Ben Steinberg, a composer of Jewish music, is coming to teach and perform. The year will begin with a congregational picnic on Sunday, August 26.

TBE continues to meet the needs of a diverse congregation by providing a spectrum of Shabbat services that reflect the various needs and spiritual journeys of its members. Every Friday evening, Shabbat begins with Tot Shabbat at 5:30 p.m. Parents and children are invited for dinner at 6 p.m. followed by shira (songs) in the chapel or Sukkat Shalom. Sukkat Shalom, a service gearied toward children from kindergarten through lower elementary grades, begins at 6:30 p.m. Both the Tot and Sukkat Shalom Services conclude with a popsicle oneg at 7 p.m. At 7:30 p.m. there is a service using the Reform prayer book, Mishkan Tefilah.

Shabbat morning begins with a Torah study led by Rabbi Levy or Rabbi Delson at 8:50 a.m. TBE clergy lead Shabbat morning services in the sanctuary at 10 a.m. on weeks when there is a bar or bat mitzvah, or in the chapel other mornings.

There also are opportunities for Shabbat celebrations throughout the year, such as a Human Rights Shabbat hosted by Social Action, Sisterhood’s National Centennial Celebration, Brotherhood Shabbat, and New Member Shabbat, which also includes recognition of members at their double chai (36th) membership an-iversary, birthdays and anniversaries. A detailed schedule of services is posted on the TBE website.

ADULT CHOIR

Jewish music plays an important role at TBE under the direction of Cantor Annie Rose.
The adult choir, Kol Halev, sings during High Holy Day services, on a monthly basis at Friday night services and at concerts and in nursing homes throughout the year.
Veterans of two international concert tours and several concerts with the Ann Arbor Symphony, Kol Halev also present concerts throughout Michigan, including a concert with the adult choir of St. Clare’s Episcopal Church.

YOUTH, MIDDLE SCHOOL AND HIGH SCHOOL MUSICAL ENSEMBLES

The Youth Choir, with members in grades 3-5, performs in services and concerts at the temple and in the community, including the Main Street Sing.

Middle School Shir Chadash and High School Shir Chadash, the student choral and instrumental ensembles, perform in services and concerts and periodically hold “Cafe” evenings of music in an informal cafe atmosphere. High School Shir Chadash travels each year to other communities to lead services and give concerts. A late-winter concert by all four ensembles is one of the highlights of the year.

SOCIAL ACTION

The mission of the Social Action Committee of Temple Beth Emeth is to assist the congregation in applying Jewish values to promote social justice through aid, education, and advocacy. These efforts to promote tikkun olam concentrate on selected issues each year that are of concern to local or global communities.

The committee’s priorities for involvement and programs for the coming year include: hunger, homelessness and poverty, Israel, human rights issues, and the environment.

Ongoing activities include volunteer teams at The Back Door Food Pantry; a vegetable garden for the pantry; involvement with Interfaith Hospitality Network/Alpha House; twice monthly dates at the Delonis Center; and the fourth year of partnership with the Shelter Association’s Rotating Shelter during Thanksgiving week. Mitzvah Day is an annual one-day service event with several hundred TBE volunteers providing services to county agencies.

SISTERHOOD AND BROTHERHOOD

The Sisterhood hosts broad-based activities that support both its members and the congregation as a whole. Members run the gift shop that offers a wide selection of Judaica and special order items. Brotherhood is both a service and educational group for the congregation, sponsoring the latke dinner, building the sukkah, and hosting both social and educational meetings for its members. (See Men’s and Women’s organizations.)

CARING COMMUNITY

The Caring Community program provides a congregation-wide opportunity to serve fellow congregants in times of joy and sorrow, by assisting with meals for families with new babies, with congregants who are ill or recovering from surgery, or for a house of mourning. CCVC also provides rides to doctor’s appointments and rides for services and events at TBE.

Bikur Cholim provides visits to TBE members who are hospitalized, in nursing centers, or at home. Nachamu (TBE’s Bereavement Group) conducts shiva services at congregants’ homes and provides training for others to participate in this mitzvah. Caregivers support groups meet to support adult children caring for parents locally and out of town.

HOLIDAY PROGRAMS

Holidays provide the perfect venue for festive events. During Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, TBE offers traditional services along with family services, youth services, and a service for tots and their parents. High Holy Day Services are held at Eastern Michigan University’s Pease Auditorium.

TBE has a family Sukkot picnic with sukkah decorating. Simchat Torah combines two events, an early celebration with singing and dance, and a later adult Torah study. For the Family Chanukah Service and the Brotherhood Latke Dinner families bring their menorahs to light during the service. On December 25, the congregation always sponsors a movie at the Michigan Theater. Purim is celebrated with a fun megillah reading and carnival. The Second Night Seder celebrates Passover in the spirit of community. A Yom HaShoah/Holocaust Memorial Service is written and led by the Generations After group, children of Holocaust survivors. Shavuot brings services written and led by the confirmation class and an evening of adult study.

TOT PROGRAMS

In addition to Tot Shabbat, Tot Chanukah is held in conjunction with the annual family service and tot activities are part of the annual Purim carnival. Caring Community provides baby bags to welcome the newest members of the community. The tot-friendly website offers songs, stories, and blessings: www.tbetots.org.

SOCIAL OPPORTUNITIES

TNT, the 20s and 30s group at TBE for young Jewish adults, single or married, meets for cultural and social events. Gatherings in the past have included canoeing, BBQ in the Sukkah, a Detroit Tigers game, potluck Shabbat dinners, picnics, and volunteering at community organizations. TNT frequently co-sponsors events with other local Jewish young adult groups, including a partnership with J-Hub. The Renaissance Group (RG), for members aged 55 and over, holds potluck dinners, game nights, attends theater events, and other activities, in an effort to encourage connections among members who no longer have children in the religious school.

TEMPLE BETH EMET RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

tginsburg@templebethemeth.org

Temple Beth Emeth strives to educate its students to become proficient in the skills needed to be life-long Jewish learners. TBE provides students with a curriculum based on Reform Jewish educational philosophy in a manner that is creative, engaging and intellectually stimulating. The Religious and Hebrew School programs serve students from preschool age through grade 12. The curriculum includes studies in customs and traditions, Torah, holidays, life cycle, prayer, music, history, theology, Israel, immigration, comparative Judaism, the Holocaust and Jewish ethics.

LOWER GRADES

Religious School for preschool-5th grade students is held at TBE on Saturday mornings in two sessions: 8:30–10:15 a.m. and 10:45 a.m.–12:30 p.m. Shabbat mornings are filled with singing, Israeli dance, stories, the study of Jewish history, Torah, Israel, mitzvot, ethics and holidays. Each grade has a different focus and the approach is an active hands-on one.

FAMILY INVOLVEMENT

A monthly parent-child class focusing on Jewish holidays and home rituals is available for three-year-olds. There are family social and educational programs for each grade level. Parenting workshops are offered on a variety of topics throughout the year. A Jewish artist is invited to perform for students and their families each year. On Shabbat morning there is an adult Torah study session, followed by services in the chapel, during the first session of religious school. These activities help to develop a sense of community and encourage parents to continue their own educational growth.

HEBREW

Students are introduced to the Hebrew alphabet in second grade, and formal Hebrew School begins in 3rd grade and continues through 6th grade. The Hebrew program focuses on Hebrew reading skills and an understanding of the meaning and structure of the prayers. Students are introduced to conversational Hebrew and grammar. TBE offers conversational Hebrew in 8th grade.

BAR/BAT MITZVAH TRAINING

Cantor Annie Rose supervises the b’nai mitzvah training program. Students work with private tutors and meet with the cantor at the end of each aliya. The rabbis also meet with students to practice their drash/speech.

MUSIC

Students enjoy a strong Jewish music program, led by experienced song leaders as part of the weekly Saturday morning program. Cantor Annie Rose leads a Youth Choir for students in grades 3–5 and Shir Chadash, vocal and instrumental groups for middle and high school students. The groups meet at times that are coordinated with Hebrew and religious school sessions.

MIDDLE AND HIGH SCHOOL PROGRAMS

Sixth through 12th grades have class on Sunday evenings from 6–7:30 p.m. The 160 students participating in this program can share pizza and social time before the formal class session begins. Seventh graders study mitzvot and participate in a variety of social action projects. The 8th grade class, which studies modern Jewish history, ends with a trip to Jewish New York. The 10th grade confirmation class is taught by Rabbi Levy and culminates in a Shabbat service written and led by the students. Eleventh and 12th grade seminar options include courses such as “Contemporary Jewish Culture,” “Repair the World: Being the Change,” and “Family Relations in the Book of Genesis.”

MADRICHIM PROGRAM

Ninth grade students participate in a year-long training program, which prepares them for working as a madrich/a (classroom aide). Students in grades 10–12 work as office or classroom aides. Fifty-one madrichim worked in the classroom last year.

ADVANCED HEBREW STUDY FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

High school students are able to receive public school credit (through the Community Resource program) for studying Hebrew language. There were 26 students involved in the Keshet Hebrew CR program last year.

The Jewish Community Center’s Older Adult Program, known as the SPICE (Social, Physical, Intellectual, Cultural and Educational) program, offers a wide range of activities for senior citizens. The SPICE program is a unique resource for the Jewish community, providing information, involvement, and opportunities for developing new friendships and for welcoming newcomers moving into the Ann Arbor area. It validates the talent and expertise of seniors and welcomes all who want to add some “SPICE” to their life.

Regularly scheduled programming includes exercise, games and crafts, current event discussions and special presentations, as well as homemade dairy lunches offered on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Periodically, special events such as concerts, classes and trips take place on other days of the week. Additionally, health monitoring, information and prevention events such as blood pressure checks, memory screening and immunizations are offered. A variety of volunteer activities offer seniors additional ways to socialize and participate in the Jewish community.

The SPICE program provides a range of social, educational, and cultural programming for seniors, including workshops, presentations, and holiday celebrations (such as a community-wide Senior Seder).

Groups meeting weekly include current events, literature, creative crafts, and mahjongg. Aerobic and strength-training exercise classes meet twice weekly. The Yiddish group meets weekly to converse and read in Yiddish. A variety of weekly presentations by guest speakers and entertainers aim to inform and stimulate.

The JCC is home to many senior activities that are collaborations with other local organizations. The annual Afternoon Delights series at the JCC features members of the Ann Arbor Symphony Orchestra. Intergenerational activities are held with the JCC Early Childhood Center and the Hebrew Day School. Additionally the JCC partners with Washtenaw Community College and the University of Michigan Turner Geriatric Center’s Osher Lifelong Learning Institute to provide a spectrum of classes and seminars.

In conjunction with the JCC, Jewish Family Services (JFS) helps older adults maintain their independence and enhance their involvement with the community. Geriatric social workers provide case management, assessment, short-term counseling, home visits, crisis intervention, Patient Partners medical accompaniment, information, and referrals for older adults and their families. Volunteers provide friendly visiting and telephone reassurance to homebound seniors. J STREET ANN ARBOR
tel: 994-5717
email: annarbor@jstreet.org
website: www.jstreet.org
Rebecca Kanner, contact

J Street is the political home for pro-Israel, pro-peace Americans fighting for the future of Israel as the democratic homeland of the Jewish people. Members believe that Israel’s Jewish and democratic character depend on a two-state solution, resulting in a Palestinian state living alongside Israel in peace and security.

Rooted in a commitment to Jewish and democratic values, J Street is redefining what it means to be pro-Israel in America. The group’s goal is to change the U.S. political dynamics around Israel by mobilizing broad support for a two-state solution, believing it’s in Israel’s and America’s interest. JCS also believes they are expanding support for Israel by affirming — along with many Israelis — that being pro-Israel doesn’t require supporting every policy of its government.

J Street Ann Arbor is the grassroots arm of national J Street. The group’s mission is to amplify, promote, and organize around the J Street mission by building and expanding the base of J Street supporters, advocating to members of Congress, working with rabbis, synagogues and communal institutions, and organizing events and programming at the community level.

JEWSH PROFESSIONALS OF ANN ARBOR

email: mirasussman@jfsannarbor.org
Mira Sussman, contact

Michigan Jewish Professionals was established in 2006 to provide local Jewish professionals with opportunities for networking and professional development. The group is open to anyone who works in a professional capacity at an area Jewish agency or is a Jewish professional with strong Ann Arbor connections. The group meets monthly (September–June) and holds special events throughout the year.
Raoul Wallenberg proved to the world that one person can make a difference in the face of evil. A Swedish citizen who graduated with the highest honors from the University of Michigan in 1935, Wallenberg volunteered during World War II to serve as a U.S. envoy in Hungary. There, his incomparable personal courage and ingenuity saved 100,000 Jewish lives. Today Raoul Wallenberg is recognized as one of the great humanitarians of the twentieth century; he is also one of the University of Michigan’s most distinguished alumni.

The Wallenberg Endowment funds an annual lecture and medal presentation to honor this international hero, whose character was partly shaped by his years in school here. Since 1990, this endowed program at the University of Michigan has awarded an annual Wallenberg Medal to an individual whose humanitarian actions exemplify those of Raoul Wallenberg. The medalist program has brought the twentieth century’s most outstanding humanitarians to campus to tell their stories.

Wallenberg Medal recipients include, among others, Nobel laureates Elie Wiesel; His Holiness the Dalai Lama; Miep Gies, the woman who supported Anne Frank and her family in hiding; Helen Suzman, a member of the South African parliament; Marion Pritchard, a Dutch woman who rescued Jewish babies during World War II; Simcha Rotem, a Warsaw ghetto fighter; the mime Marcel Marceau, who as a member of the French Resistance smuggled Jewish children into Switzerland; United States Congressman and civil rights leader John Lewis; and Paul Rusesabagina, a hotel manager who sheltered more than a thousand people from certain death during Rwanda’s civil strife.

The Wallenberg Committee deeply believes that young people must be told the story of Raoul Wallenberg. When Wallenberg’s sister, Nina Lagergren, came from Sweden in the fall of 2001 to accept the Wallenberg Medal on behalf of her brother, she emphasized in her lecture the importance of reaching out to young people. It is, after all, the best way to begin to change the world. The Wallenberg Committee believes that the example of Raoul Wallenberg can turn young people... from helpless cynicism to resolute hopefulness and to awaken them to the belief that one person can make a difference.

For more information about the Waltenberg lecture and ceremony this year, contact Wendy Ascione.

Members of the Beth Israel Congregation Men’s Club meet about once a month and implement several important projects over the course of the congregation year. They maintain the congregation website, organize the ushers over the High Holidays, construct the synagogue Sukkah each year and they host, in concert with Men’s Clubs around the world, the Annual World Wide Wrap and Polar Bear Photo, which teaches and encourages the laying of tefillin by both men and women. In addition they plan trips to baseball games, help maintain the Beth Israel grounds, and sponsor the annual Gershowitz Memorial Shabbat, which encourages men and women to learn to lead new parts of the service. They also organize the distribution of Yom HaShoah memorial candles to the congregation.

Hadassah is both the largest women’s organization and the largest Jewish membership organization in the United States. Hadassah of Ann Arbor, an organization of over 450 members, has a rich history of... activism. It is an organization for women of all ages, providing social outlets and educational opportunities that raise awareness and empower women. The chapter's programs address health, cultural, political and spiritual issues that matter.

Local Hadassah activities include educational programs and several interest groups, including Mahjong, Book Club, and Bridge. The chapter hosts various fundraising efforts, such as a rummage re-sale and a donor campaign. Programs that are benefited by the fundraisers include the Hadassah Medical Organization in Jerusalem, the Hadassah College Jerusalem, Youth Aliyah/Children at Risk, and the Jewish National Fund. Hadassah is proud that 94 percent of its fundraising dollars goes directly to such worthwhile projects locally, nationally, in Israel and throughout the world.

This year, 2012, marks the 100th anniversary of Hadassah’s founding by Henrietta Szold. To commemorate this centennial year, Hadassah will be dedicating The Sarah Wetsman Davidson Hospital Tower in Jerusalem in October 2012. The Tower will replace a 50-year-old hospital building with outmoded patient rooms and operating rooms that cannot accommodate state-of-the-art equipment. The Tower is Hadassah's gift to the people of Israel.

Hadassah annual dues are $36 and life membership is currently $212.

TBE Sisterhood is also the Ann Arbor chapter of Women of Reform Judaism. In addition to social occasions, the group organizes a variety of activities and programs that support congregational, local and international WRJ initiatives. Active volunteers make for a friendly and welcoming way for women to engage in TBE community life. Non-TBE members are also welcome to join.

Sweet Beginnings is an award-winning “review party” on the first day of Hebrew School in the fall. Each bar and bat mitzvah receives a kiddush cup from Sisterhood, and college students receive gift packages at Chanukah and Purim. First-time Jewish campers receive scholar-ship support. Sisterhood contributes to the TBE Youth Advisor’s salary, to AARTY convention travel, and additional funds to the TBE religious school.

The entire Jewish Community is welcome to shop at the Sisterhood-run TBE Gift Shop which carries a wide variety of Judaica in a broad price range. The shop is open Mondays and Wednesdays during Hebrew School, Fridays before services, and Sundays, 5:30–7 p.m. It is also open by appointment; contact Amy Paberzs (668-6842; amypab@hotmail.com).

Local non-profits receive donations or support through Sisterhood. Members also cook and staff the Ronald McDonald House during Christian holidays.

Through the WRJ affiliation, Sisterhood contributes to the Hebrew Union Collage (rabbinic and cantorial scholarships), the Jewish Braille Institute, the World Union for Progressive Judaism (WUPJ), and several Reform nursery schools in Israel. Sisterhood board members benefit from WRJ leadership training and resource sharing at district and national meetings.

In addition to these programs, the group has informal monthly dinners and lunches, afternoon and evening mahj groups, biweekly Women’s Torah Study, a Book/Movie Club, periodic lectures, workshops, trips, and activities. This year’s welcoming brunch will be held September 26.

College. It is the only Jewish organization in Ypsilanti, and often the only Jewish connection for EMU students during their college years. Hillel at EMU operates out of a renovated house on Washtenaw Avenue across from the EMU campus.

Hillel at EMU regularly partners with Eastern faculty and EMU Campus Life to bring major speakers and events to campus. Offerings by Hillel at EMU include student-prepared Shabbat Dinners, holiday celebrations, bowling nights, and opportunities for Jewish learning and exploration. In addition to serving the EMU and WCC Jewish student populations, Hillel at EMU works to educate the broader campus communities and advocate for Jewish students. Hillel at EMU is dedicated to empowering and engaging Jewish students, strengthening their connection to Judaism, and guiding them to become future Jewish community leaders. Hillel at EMU gives students the tools to explore Jewish life as independent young adults.

GROUPS AND INITIATIVES

Student Advisory Board. Student volunteer leaders work together to maintain Hillel at EMU’s presence on both the EMU and WCC campuses by engaging peers in Jewish discussions, events, and activities.

Shabbat Student Corps. EMU and WCC students join together to prepare and lead Kabbalat Shabbat Services and Shabbat dinner about twice per month. Students create their own meaningful and engaging Shabbat experiences, including themed dinners, engaging discussions, and family-included Shabbat evenings.

Alternative Spring Break (ASB). Students devote their spring break to hands-on community service and social justice work. Participants use Jewish values and ideas as a framework to explore the inequalities of society and what they can do as individuals and as an organized group to address these challenges.

Taglit-Birthright Israel. Hillel at EMU connects students to this free 10-day, life-altering trip to Israel through Taglit-Birthright Israel trip providers. Any Jews ages 18-26 who have never been to Israel on an organized peer trip can apply in February for the annual spring/summer trips.

Gaygle. EMU’s Jewish Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Allies student group provides an accepting atmosphere where students of any sexual orientation and any Jewish background can build a supportive Jewish community around LGBT issues and offer educational programs and events on campus.

Jewish Education Students. This student group promotes cross-cultural understanding in EMU’s School of Education. It provides Jewish students with opportunities to network with one another and to explore professional possibilities as Jewish educators. Jewish Ed students provide important opportunities for non-Jewish education students to gain a greater understanding of Judaism as it relates to their future students.

a diverse spectrum of approaches to Jewish life that combines the religious (traditional and alternative), cultural, intellectual, political and social. At U-M Hillel students work hard and play hard. Groups are peer-led and students gain invaluable leadership skills from their experiences. Hillel is one of the best places to hang out on the U-M campus whether to catch a movie, enjoy a gourmet kosher meal (lunch and dinner served daily) or to use as a study space (the Hillel building has wireless internet access). There is also a wide array of information about jobs, scholarships, study abroad, visiting Israel, programs happening on campus and volunteer opportunities in the community. U-M Hillel staff provide support, guidance, counseling and leadership development for students on campus.

ISRAEL GROUPS AND PROGRAMS

AMI, the American Movement for Israel, sponsors educational, political and cultural events and programs to promote support and understanding of Israel and its people.

iLead (Israel Leadership), focuses on Israel education, advocacy and engagement skill building, and development among student leaders.

JEWS Learning

From weekly classes (Talmud, yoga, and more) to informal discussions to dialogue groups there is always Jewish learning going on at Hillel. How does Judaism fit into who you are becoming? How does your learning influence your beliefs? Hillel can help you with these big questions.

Shulchan Ivrit provides a weekly opportunity for students of all levels of proficiency to speak Hebrew together.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

Hillel offers a variety of religious services on Friday nights and holidays; creative, musical Reform services; an egalitarian Conservative minyan; and Shalvah, a spirited “partnership minyan” with Carlebach melodies. The Orthodox minyan which serves students, faculty, and community members also holds daily services.

SHOUT: Students Honoring Outstanding University Teaching, conducts a campus-wide nomination process in order to select the year's recipient of the Golden Apple Award. The winning U-M teacher, in addition to receiving a Golden Apple trophy and a cash prize, delivers his or her ideal “last lecture.” The Golden Apple Award is sponsored by Hillel and Apple Computer Inc. and is co-sponsored by more than 20 U-M academic units and student groups.

Consider Magazine is a publication presenting different viewpoints on a variety of issues, both local and international. It is available in racks at Hillel and in most major university buildings.

Volunteers in Action is a social action group that works in soup kitchens and on projects for the homeless, children, and the elderly. It often collaborates with other community groups.

offers programming, discussion groups, speakers and social events that meet the needs of the diverse Jewish LGBTQ community on campus.

Hillel Outdoor Adventure was started by students who express their Jewish identity by being in nature and the great outdoors. The group is inspired by Scouts and the Jewish value of bal tashchit, meaning “do not destroy,” a guiding value for Jewish environmentalism and sustainable living. Outdoor Adventure enjoys camping, hiking, skiing, and snowboarding.

U-M JEWISH COMMUNAL LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

A collaborative effort of the University of Michigan School of Social Work and the Frankel Center for Judaic Studies, the Jewish Communal Leadership Program (JCLP) offers a distinctive educational opportunity for emerging leaders committed to helping Jewish communities meet 21st-century challenges while also addressing broader social concerns.

The program combines academic study in Judaic Studies and Social Work, experiential training in non-profit management, and hands-on engagement with contemporary communal challenges. Students serve as non-voting board members at local Jewish agencies and pursue field placements with outstanding community agencies locally, nationally, and around the world.

Hailing from across the United States, JCLP students become active members of the Ann Arbor Jewish community. JCLP works to expand its conversations beyond the University by hosting numerous programs with national speakers intended to engage the public in challenging discussions about the present and future of Jewish community.

Throughout their experience, JCLP students become active participants in the work of imagining and building a Jewish communal future.

Keshet is an academic program for high school student, offering the opportunity to take Hebrew classes to fulfill the Foreign Language requirement, and receive high school credit as if it was any other high school class at their school. At Keshet, students meet twice a week for a total of four hours and study Modern Hebrew with professional language instructors, some of which are also U-M lecturers. Classes are small, allowing teachers to focus on their students' progress and lessons are dynamic and communicative.

As with other academic high school courses, students are expected to complete homework, take quizzes, exams, and occasionally prepare class presentations. Attendance and participation are key. Class material is level appropriate and naturally contains cultural components such as Israeli movies, songs, newspapers, and more, to make the language learning experience wholesome and well rounded. Keshet offers four levels of Hebrew, from beginners to advanced, and students come from all walks of the Ann Arbor community.

Not all Keshet students take it for credit; some are there for their love of the language and their sincere interest in learning how to communicate in Hebrew. These driven teens are an integral part of classes; they attend regularly, take the exams and participate in other Keshet activities. Keshet is proud to have such motivated students and to be a part of their busy schedules.

Keshet is recognized by the Ann Arbor Public School Community Resource (CR) department, a unique system that lets high school students take a class not offered in their school, and get credit for it. Keshet fulfills CR requirements and maintains close contact with the CR monitor throughout the year.

All classes meet on Monday nights (6:30–8:30 pm), while the other meeting day is determined in September by each teacher and their students. Monday night is pizza night, and students are invited to come earlier (6 p.m.) and enjoy social time with their peers. Keshet follows the Ann Arbor Public Schools calendar as well as the Jewish calendar, and commemorates major Israeli events such as Yitzhak Rabin's Memorial Day, Israel's Independence Day, and more.

Classrooms for Keshet are provided by both Beth Israel Congregation and Temple Beth Emeth; Keshet thankfully acknowledges the educational cooperation and support of these two synagogues and their educational directors. Keshet is funded by a grant from the Jewish Federation, and supported by donations from parents, as well as by gifts from generous members in the community who care about quality Hebrew instruction. Co-sponsors include Beth Israel Religious School and Temple Beth Emeth Religious School.
The goal of TEP is not only to teach Hebrew as a language, but also to teach what’s behind the language and the joy of Judaism. Three levels are offered: beginner, intermediate and advanced. Classes meet on Sundays and Wednesdays.

Camp Gan Israel is a summer camp dedicated to enriching the lives of children from diverse Jewish backgrounds and affiliations through a stimulating day camp experience. C.G.I. of Ann Arbor is part of the largest and fastest growing network of day camps, enjoying a reputation as a pioneer in Jewish camping, with innovative ideas and creative activities, to both provide enjoyment and inspire children to try new and exciting things.

Camp Gan Israel was created to provide children with a fun and meaningful summer program, while fostering growth individually and socially in a Jewish atmosphere. The daily schedule includes an exciting mix of sports, field trips, special programs and activities designed to be educational, fun and conducive to building character and nurturing friendships.

Camp Gan Israel is for children ages 4–13 with four divisions:
1. Mini Gan Izzy for ages 4–5 years
2. Junior Division for kids entering 1st–2nd grade
3. Sabra for kids entering 3rd–4th grade
4. Pioneer for kids entering 5th–8th grade

The program includes field trips to many places in Southeast Michigan; three-times-a-week swimming; and three-times-a-week “icamp,” an innovative program where the campers can choose their activities, such as: dance, woodworking, art, tennis, a science program, gymnastics, music, jewelry making, cooking, origami, martial arts, yoga, chess, nature, and other sports. Every Friday there is a Shabbat celebration which includes a Shabbat party and challah baking.

Camp Gan Israel’s Judaic programming is designed to instill campers with a love for Judaism and pride in their Jewish identity. The camp Judaic experience is comprised of engaging activities, hands-on projects, stories, songs and crafts. Camp is filled with programming that teaches children positive values and character traits, taught in a fun, exciting way.

There is a camp theme each year on which all activities center, and it is emphasized that every child, irrespective of their level of Jewish observance, becomes a part of the Gan Israel family.

Camp Gan Israel is fully licensed by the State of Michigan. It is located at Clonlara School, 1289 Jewett Road. Camp Gan Israel runs for seven weeks during the summer.

Gan Yeladim, for children ages 2–5 years, meets on Tuesday and Thursday afternoon from 1–4 p.m. At Gan Yeladim each child is encouraged to make choices with respect towards him/herself, others and his/her surroundings.

Group leaders seek to nourish each child’s heart and mind as their cognitive, social, emotional, and physical skills are developed, so that each child will be a well-rounded person capable of solving problems and adapting to new situations. Children are educated in a creative, supportive, and warm Jewish environment, so that each child will learn about life as a Jew.

Gan Yeladim Playgroup seeks to create a stimulating and enriching educational environment for each and every child. Group leaders are devoted to helping children learn socialization skills, building their self-confidence and teaching them the about Jewish values and rituals through songs, stories and arts and crafts. In addition, they seek to ignite a spark in each child to lay claim to his Jewish heritage and commit him or her to a lifetime passion for Jewish learning.

This year’s cover design was created by Washtenaw Jewish News graphic designer Dennis Platte, from a photograph of a mosaic wall hanging at the Jewish Community Center of Washtenaw County. The mosaic was created as a group educational art project at Celebrate Israel in 2007. This project was designed and supervised by artists Gail Rosenbloom Kaplan and Dani Katsir.

Gail Rosenbloom Kaplan is a working artist with a studio in Farmington Hills. Her portfolio of work includes trompe l’oeil clay, glass mosaics, printmaking and mixed media. She has exhibited in Michigan and internationally, including at the University of Michigan Hospital.

Dani Katsir, a full-time glass artist, was born in Hungary and immigrated to Israel as a child. When Katsir retired from the Israeli Air Force, he and his wife moved to Michigan. Katsir specializes in three-dimensional glass objects and in Judaica.

Keeping Kosher in Ann Arbor
by Marcie Greenfield

If you're keeping a kosher home in Washtenaw County, there are plenty of options. Hiller's and Trader Joe's are your best bet. Both offer a wide variety of kosher products and fresh kosher meat. Whole Foods, People's Food Co-op, Arbor Farms, Busch's, Plum Market and Costco add to the abundance of vegetarian and Kosher foods available locally.

Hiller's, a Michigan-owned grocery store with several locations around the Detroit metro area, has the largest selection of kosher products, with dedicated kosher sections in the grocery, frozen and refrigerated aisles. They offer fresh and frozen kosher beef, chicken and turkey, and they often have frozen kosher duck. Hiller's also has an extensive selection of kosher cold cuts that they will slice on a machine only used for kosher meat. They also have the greatest choices for Passover. Ask at the service desk if you don't see what you want because they may be able to order it.

Trader Joe's has a printed list of kosher products sold there (including a list with details about the kosher symbols on their packages). You can get the list at the store or on their website (traderjoes.com) under products & guides. They usually stock most kosher fresh chicken options, turkey breast and ground turkey, ribeye steak, brisket and ground beef.

Costco has recently opened a store in Ann Arbor, and they offer many Kosher products. They sell frozen Empire cooked chicken tenders, family-size packages of Aarons cold cuts (roast turkey and corned beef) and Hebrew National hot dogs.

Kroger, Meijer and Busch’s sell Hebrew National hot dogs and the normal grocery store items. You can find kosher wine at many stores, including Hiller’s, Whole Foods, Stadium Market, Morgan and York, Plum Market and A&L Wine Castle. Just Baked, an Ann Arbor bakery with multiple locations in the metro area, is certified kosher (dairy).

There also are plenty of vegetarian and vegan shopping options at the People's Food Coop, Whole Foods (they also have a list of kosher foods sold there, a small frozen kosher section and some fresh Kosher chicken) and Arbor Farms.

About 45 minutes away is a full-service Kosher butcher (Harvard Row Kosher Meat) and bakeries (Bake Station and Zeman's). In addition, the area's largest all-Kosher grocery store, One Stop Kosher in Oak Park, includes fresh meat and produce, fresh-sliced deli meats, cooked foods and a large selection of wine.

Most restaurants in town offer vegetarian and vegan options. Seva has been a strictly vegetarian restaurant since 1973. Around the corner is Earthen Jar, a vegetarian and vegan Indian food buffet. Jazzy Veggie on Main Street offers a full menu of creative vegetarian and vegan fare. Hut-k Chaat, one of Ann Arbor’s food carts with an additional eat-in location on Packard near Platt, offers an all-vegetarian menu with vegan options. Another food cart, The Lunch Room, is totally vegan.

The Ann Arbor Chabad House provides classes and assistance to community members who are interested in kashering their kitchen and keeping kosher. Call (734) 995-3276 for details. Delivery from several kosher restaurants, carryout places and bakeries located in Detroit area can be arranged through the Chabad House for a small fee.

To stay abreast of recent happenings in the kosher world, you can subscribe to KosherGram, published by Va’ad Harabonim (Rabbinical Council) of Detroit. Call (248) 559-5005 to be put on the mailing list or go to their website at cordetroit.com. Kashrut alerts also are posted on the Orthodox Union website, ou.org, and koshermichigan.com.

The following Ann Arbor stores offer kosher foods:

- Arbor Farms, 2103 West Stadium Blvd.
- Costco, 771 Airport Blvd.
- Hiller's Market, 3615 Washtenaw Ave.
- Just Baked, 2463A East Stadium Blvd.
- People's Food Coop, 216 North 4th Ave.
- Trader Joe's, 2398 East Stadium Blvd.

There's something special about the Jewish Community Center. You feel it as soon as you walk in the door. Whether you've come to bring your child to preschool, attend a concert, hear an author speak, see the Israeli Scouts, take part in a holiday celebration, join an exercise class or learn Yiddish, you feel at home. The JCC is the place where you and your family explore pathways into the Jewish world.

Please support the JCC by becoming a member today. Contact the JCC at 734-971-0990 for more information.
The Jewish Federation of Greater Ann Arbor works in partnership with our beneficiary agencies, Jewish communal organizations and congregations to build a vibrant and inclusive Ann Arbor Jewish Community.
